

DIGITAL TRANSFORMATIONS AND MULTICENTRIC LEGAL SYSTEMS

stationary part (on-site classes at the university premises and fieldwork classes in Cracow)

Program:

Day One (Saturday):

10:00 – Registration and welcome drink

Opening speeches

Lecture: Welcome to Cracow (Get to know your host university and host city)

11:30 – Lecture: “The Evolution of Private Law in the 20th Century – An Introduction” by Wladyslaw Peksa

13:15 – Lunch

Free time

Day Two (Sunday):

Fieldwork classes:

NOWA HUTA DISTRICT in CRACOW

“Cracow–Nowa Huta and its Transformations: A vivid example of the rapid transformations of private law in the practice of the 20th century. From a village through the communist ideal city, then the decline after 1989 and revitalization – reflections in private law.” By Wladyslaw Peksa

Location: Nowa Huta district

10:30–11:30 – Field visit

11:30–12:00 – Break

12:00–12:30 – Formation of working groups

Free time

Day Three (Monday):

09:00 – Lecture: “Electronic Databases and Registers in the Work of a Lawyer – Practical Experiences Based on the Polish Example” by Jacek Lachner

10:30 – Break

Group work – Projects under the supervision of Prof. Lachner

12:00 – Lunch

Free time

(trip to Auschwitz at 1:00 p.m.)

Day Four (Tuesday):

10:00 – Lecture: “Business Law and Digital Transformations” by Karol Ryszkowski

10:30–11:00 – Break

Group work under the supervision of dr Ryszkowski

12:30 – Lunch

14:00 – Lecture: “Intellectual Property as a Subject of Private Law (Civil Law) in the Digital Age” by Karol Magoń

14.30 - Break

Group work under the supervision of Karol Magon

Free time

Dinner at the Restaurant

Day Five:

10:00 – Closing session

Presentation of group project results

Summary and final remarks by dr Wladyslaw Peksa

Free time